G. General remarks of the German mission for submittal of a Schengen visa application

- The German Missions reserve the right to ask for additional documents.
- Submission of the above-mentioned documents does not guarantee that a visa is granted.
- Submission of incomplete documentation may result in the rejection of an application. The visa section is not obliged to ask for submittal of documents already mentioned on this list before denying an application.
- Applications have to be submitted not earlier than six months before and not later than 15 working days before the intended date of travel.
- Applications are processed within 15 working days from the day of arrival at the visa section. When submitting your application via VFS application center, please keep in mind that the visa application will need up to two working days to reach the visa section. Public holidays of the German missions as announced on our website will not count as working days.
- Please note that individual status inquiries cannot be answered within the standard processing time of 15 working days.
- A booked flight ticket does not result in a preferred processing of the application.

- All documents, forms and declarations have to be submitted either in German or English. All documents, forms and declarations not in German or
- English have to be submitted with proper German or English translation.
- Failing to provide proper translation will result in the document, form or declaration considered “missing”

H. Special remarks of the German mission for submittal of a Schengen visa application in the respective category

- The start date of an exhibition / trade fair does not result in a preferred processing of the application.
- The regular Schengen visa fees apply. Exhibitors may be exempted from the visa fee only if the individual exhibitor pass is provided together with the application. Later submittal of the exhibitor pass will not result in an reimbursement of the visa fee. Holders of visitor passes are not exempted from the visa fees

I Declaration of the visa applicant (to be signed by the parent(s) submitting the application if applicant is a minor or by the representative at the VFS VAC on the day of submittal)

I have taken note of the general and special remarks as mentioned on checklist.

I have been informed that VFS Global does not have any influence on the decision about a visa application

I confirm that the VFS officer has noted all documents submitted by me and that I want the application in its present form to be forwarded to the German mission. I am aware that original documents not submitted with a copy will be kept by the visa section.
